Latest Capture Made by a Policeman at Cumberland, Md.

(By Associated Frees.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.— A special from Cumberland, Md., timed 5 A. M., to the Washington Times says: "This morning at about 1.10 o'clock Officer Beck, of this city, noticed a man officer Beck, of this city, noticed a man acting in a rather suscicious manner near the Baltimore and Ohio Depot. He tried to board express train No. 9, west bound with two satchels. The men answered the description of one of the men implicated in the robbery of the express car at Quantico, Va., last week.

"As soon as the officer attempted to make the arrest the man started to run, but was soon caught by the officer. He claimed to have been stopping at one of the hotels in this city, and upon being taken to each of the hotels in turn claimed that it was a different one.

"He was taken to the station-house.

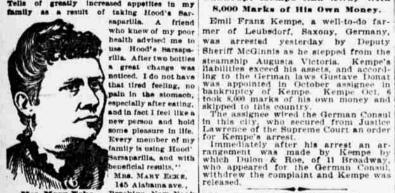

"He was taken to the station-house, and upon being searched $1,553 was found hidden in two woolien stockings, $223 being in notes and $630 in silver; one silver watch and one gold one, a lot of pawn-tickets and three silver pocket-books. A fine Co.t's navy revolver was in his pocket. There were forty-three cartridges in his pocket and a memoran dum book showing where the entire boodle had been divided between the two men.

"In his satchel were found old muddy shoes, a slouch hat and wearing appared that looked like disguises. He asked to be taken to the tollet-room, and while there tried to hide another revolver and some money, but was caught in the act. The man weights at least 160 pounds and he is six feet tall, with a smooth face and was dressed neatly. It was discovered by the officials that he had arrived in this city at about 11 o'clock

The above despatch from Cumberland, Md., was shown to President L. C. Weir, of the Adams Express Company, in this city, who said that it divides the divides received by him. The Cumberland suspect, he believed, was one of three men under surveillance, who passed through Front Royal and were traced to a Norfolk Royal and serie to juil at Martinsburg. The third escaped, but was overtaken at Cumberland, Md., and is now under arrest there, where the only money so far reported was found.

Four more men implicated in the robbery have yet to be accounted for. Four more men implicated in the robbery have yet to be accounted for. Mr. Weir was positive that the total amount stolen would not exceed $20,000, and that even that amount would likely be reduced by further report.

ries. Officer Beck says that the man was intoxicated and made a mand fight before he could be arrested.

The Adams Express Company officers here said at $3.0 octock this morning that they had not received any telegram up to that from a comparison to the capture of any of the train robbers, but they had sent men to Cumberland and Cherry Run. A special to The Star from Cumberland, Md. said: 'One of the Quantico train robbers was captured in this city early this morning and one at Cherry Run.'

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 17.— A Front Royal special to the Dispatch says that two suspicious men arrived there about dark Monday night from towards the Rappalannock country. In was heavy set, the other tall, wire dark brown hair and mustache and high cheek bones. The tall man bought a black worsed sack suit and wore a gray alpine hat. He paid for the clother with a ten-dollar gold piece and sixteen sellver pieces. Joseph E. Foster, a lawver, of Mount Vernon, was held in $1,000 ball for trial by Justice Welde, in the Morrisania Police Court to-day, on a charge of perjury, brought by William S. Meeks, a builder, of 309 West Thirty-second street. On Nov. 17, 1891, Justice Taintor, it Poster as a bondsman for William S. eath street and Seventh avenue, who was qualifying as bondsman, Foster, it is alleged, awore that he owned a house valued at $20,000, at 203 East Nineteenth valued at $20,000, at 203 East Nineteenth street.

Several months ago Meeks said he learned that the property for which he had the title was owned by the Stuyveeant family, and had been a part of that estate for 200 years.

Last Monday Mr. Meeks secured a warrant for Foster's arrest. The warrant was served last dight in Mount Vernon by Corrt Officer Gohl. Ex-Judge Angell appeared for the defendant and upon his advice Foster waived examination.

Thomas Foster, a brother of the de-amination.

Thomas Foster, a brother of the defendant, was accepted as the latter's bondsman to-day. Thomas swore he held a lease of the house at 294 East Nineteenth street and that his brother owns a similar lease of the house at 293 East Nineteenth street. At the time of his qualifying as bondsman for his brother he did not claim ownership of the property.
